DETAILED ACTION

1. The amendment filed 7/12/2004 has been entered.

Election/Restrictions

2. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention II in the reply filed on 7/12/2004 is acknowledged. However, newly added claim 11 is not part of Invention II. Claim 11 represents an additional Invention and claim 2 is now a linking claim. Claim 11 is not withdrawn because claim 2 has been determined to be allowable.

Specification

3. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: Sheet Separation Roller Configuration.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yagi et al. Yagi discloses a sheet feeder that includes a supply roller (7) that separates from sheet material after the sheet material reaches a separation roller (8) and a retardation roller (9) (see col. 1, Fig. 18).

Art Unit: 3651

6. Claims 7-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yamauchi et al. Yamauchi discloses a sheet feeder that includes a supply roller (11); a separation roller (12) and a retardation roller (13); a plurality of torque limiters (31,61); means for switching the torque limiters (SW1,SW2); and means for adjusting (63).

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-5 and 11 are allowed.

8. Claim 10 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

9. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
